1. Examinations for the courses of the summer semester 2022: Organisation

=====

All examinations will take place as scheduled. The Rectorate appeals to all examiners and the examination boards to provide an alternative examination option for students who cannot take part in an attendance examination due to a quarantine, so as not to slow down their study progress. Alternative options may include: offering another exam date (in some subjects this is the case anyway), allowing students to take the exam from home, offering an alternative exam format.

=====

2. Examinations for the courses of the summer semester 2022: Masks

=====

A mask requirement will be introduced for the upcoming examinations: The wearing of a medical mask is mandatory; a mask according to the FFP2 standard or comparable is recommended.

=====

3. Scholarship "Deutschlandstipendium"

=====

Together with a strong network of alumni, business enterprises and foundations, the University awards around 200 Deutschlandstipendien (scholarship "Deutschlandstipendium") every year to particularly capable students. Apply! Your chances are good, regardless of your chosen field of study.

The application deadline is 31 August 2022.

The application must be prepared. Find out about the application procedure at an early stage at:

<https://www.stipendien.uni-wuppertal.de/de/deutschlandstipendium/>

=====

4. Scholarships of the Study Foundation of the Bergische Universität Wuppertal (BUW)

=====

These scholarships are aimed at students whose academic success is at risk for economic reasons. The scholarships are awarded with special consideration of personal circumstances.

The application deadline is 14 August 2022.

The application must be prepared and requires certificates issued by third parties. It is therefore best to find out about the application procedure immediately at:
