2. Election of the student parliament (StuPa)
=====

Between 22 and 26 January, the election of the student parliament (StuPa) takes place at the University of Wuppertal. At the same time, the department student councils will be elected, too.

There are four polling stations, which are opened daily between 10 am and 4 pm:

Schools 1, 2, 3: Entrance area of building ME (dining hall) near the cafeteria, Griffenberg campus

- Schools 4, 7, 8, 9: Vor Hörsaal 14, Campus Griffenberg
- School 5: Vor der Mensa im Gebäude FME, Campus Haspel
- School 6: Im Foyer vor dem Hörsaalzentrum, Campus Freudenberg

3. Master of Education: Changes in admission procedures

There will be changes in the admission procedure for the Master of Education degree programmes from the winter semester 2024/25 onwards:

- If credit points are not awarded for admission requirements, students must provide proof of these requirements before entering the Master of Education, including subject-related practical training periods, periods of study abroad, language skills (Latin proficiency examination, Greek proficiency examination, Hebrew certificate, and knowledge of two foreign languages). In addition, all practical examinations (e.g. practical examinations in sport) must be completed.
- Admission can be granted only under the condition of producing certain additional credits of up to 20 CP.

All regulations as well as contact details and information on the counselling services of the School of Education can be found here:
