- 1. genAI4BUW – Access to commercial generative AI tools:

=====

With the AI tool genAI4BUW, the University of Wuppertal now offers all employees and students access to commercial generative AI tools.

Access and information: <https://genai4buw.uni-wuppertal.de/en/>

OpenAI's Chat-GPT (GPT4 and GPT5 models) can currently be used via genAI4BUW.

In accordance with legal requirements, employees must successfully complete mandatory training before using genAI4BUW. You can access the course here: <https://ki-campus.org/en/courses/ai-university>

3. Get involved – to make our campus safer!!

=====

How safe do you feel on campus? As part of a master's thesis in the field of civil protection, disaster relief and property security, a student is currently conducting a survey at the University of Wuppertal to assess the sense of security and subjective perception of space.

Your assessments and experiences will help to better understand safety and well-being on campus and to propose improvement measures.

The survey takes about 15–20 minutes and is available until 22 December 2025.

Please click here to participate in the survey:

4. Introduction to University Didactics (23–24 February 2026 with Daniel Al-Kabbani)

=====

Are you thinking about how to change your teaching next semester, or have you ever considered how university teaching models could help you change the way you teach? Then take advantage of the next workshop on 'Introduction to University Teaching' on 2. And 24 February 2026 with Daniel Al-Kabbani.

For further information, please visit: www.sape.uni-wuppertal.de

In addition, you can arrange for an external observer to sit in on your classes and receive professional, independent, and confidential feedback on your teaching, along with suggestions for improvement tailored to your needs.
